Fake Emails

Please be aware that fraudulent emails are being sent pretending to be from Chancery staff or clergy, often requesting donations through gift cards or other items. Clergy and staff of the Archdiocese of Toronto, its parishes, and missions do not request gift cards by email.

If you receive an unusual, unsolicited email from someone who works for the archdiocese, please check the email address of the sender. If it is not @archtoronto.org or @mercifulredeemer.org then it may be a fake message.

Do not reply to suspicious emails, as responses may encourage further scams. When in doubt, contact the parish or call the parish or chancery office associated with the sender.

SL ShareLife

Thanks to your support of ShareLife, Patricia found hope

Patricia arrived at school exhausted with her colicky baby after her landlord illegally cut off her water and hydro. Thanks to ShareLife donors, Rose of Sharon provided legal support, a warm shower, fresh clothes, and a safe place to care for her child. Sadly, many young mothers face similar struggles with poverty and unsafe housing.

Thus far we have reached 83% toward our goal of $265,000, please give using a ShareLife envelope at the parish, online through our parish website, or at sharelife.org/donate

Liturgy of the Word

The Liturgy of the Word is the foundational first half of the Mass. Its primary significance lies in Jesus Christ speaking directly to the assembly through Sacred Scripture. This part of the liturgy reveals salvation history, nourishes the faithful, and prepares them spiritually for the Eucharistic sacrifice.

The Liturgy of the Word follows a profound, deliberate structure:

The Readings: Through a structured 3-year cycle on Sundays, we hear sacred words from the Old Testament, the Psalms, and the New Testament, culminating in the Gospel. This immerses the congregation in nearly the entire Bible.

The Gospel: Honoured as the pinnacle of the Liturgy of the Word, it is proclaimed by a priest or deacon. The congregation stands to hear the words and deeds of Jesus firsthand.

The Homily: The celebrant breaks open the Scripture, bridging ancient texts with contemporary daily life and church teachings.

The Profession of Faith (Creed): The congregation unites to proclaim the fundamental beliefs of the faith.

The Prayers of the Faithful: The community intercedes for the needs of the Church, the world, and local intentions.

Historically rooted in ancient Jewish synagogue traditions, this liturgy mirrors the biblical encounter on the Road to Emmaus. In that story, Jesus first explained the scriptures to the disciples before revealing Himself in the breaking of the bread. Similarly, the Church teaches that Christ is present in the proclaimed Word just as He is truly present in the Eucharist.

Listening to and absorbing these readings serves as the spiritual nourishment required for the congregation to live out the Gospel and prepare their hearts to receive Jesus with enthusiasm and reverence.
