The Atrium at Merciful Redeemer

Catechesis of the Good Shepherd, a widely recognized program for children, has been growing here in our parish for the past 4 years. The volunteer catechists want to thank MR for their support in providing the specially prepared space under the stairs, an Atrium, for many of our 3 to 9 year olds. Each week they listen to the Word of God, learn about our Catholic Liturgy and experience the wonders of God's loving presence in their lives.

The increasing need for more materials and volunteers has presented a new challenge, therefore a request is being extended for more support in the following areas:
- Making materials (woodworking, painting, colouring/copying, sewing)
- Volunteer assistance during sessions (Wed. & Thurs. 4-5:30pm),
-Donations of Bibles (of any language), religious articles (prayer cards, greeting cards, small statues etc.), or a monetary gift for purchasing needed items.

More information about the program can be found on the Archdiocese of Toronto website and our parish contact person is Teresa Brown, mercifulcgs@gmail.com
